

For further information on all events tel: 020 7361 3010
information@rbkc.gov.uk
www.rbkc.gov.uk/libraries

All events are free of charge

Kensington Central Library

Phillimore Walk
London
W8 7RX
Tel: 020 7361 3010

Brompton Library

210 Old Brompton Road
London
SW5 0BS
Tel: 020 7361 3010

Chelsea Library

Chelsea Old Town Hall
King's Road
London
SW3 5EZ
Tel: 020 7361 3010

Notting Hill Gate Library

1 Pembridge Square
Notting Hill
London
W2 4EW
Tel: 020 7361 3010

North Kensington Library

108 Ladbrooke Grove
North Kensington
London
W11 1PZ
Tel: 020 7361 3010

Kensal Library

20 Golborne Road
London
W10 5PF
Tel: 020 7361 3010

THE ROYAL BOROUGH OF KENSINGTON
AND CHELSEA

Summer Fun for all the family in the Library

26 July to 28 August 2010

Here to help

THE ROYAL BOROUGH OF KENSINGTON
AND CHELSEA

Summer Fun for all the family in the Library

There is something for everyone at the library this summer. All children are welcome. If you are under eight years old, please bring a grown up with you – they will enjoy it too! All events are free.

Bookstart time

Children under 4 years can be sure of a special welcome at their own events every week. No tickets are required, just bring a grownup and settle down for some rhymes, songs and stories.

- Central Library
Wednesdays 10.30am to 11.30am
- Chelsea Library
Thursdays 10.45am to 11.45am
- North Kensington Library
Mondays 10.30am to 11.30am
- Brompton Library
Mondays 2pm to 3pm

Bookcrawl

Join the special Bookcrawl at your local library. Every time you borrow books, you will get a sticker and a certificate. After four visits, you will get your special Space Hop certificate and a Bookstart bear. Ask library staff for details.

Spot the Dog at Chelsea Library

SPOT © Eric Hill / Salspot Ltd., 2010

Spot the Dog is celebrating his 30th birthday this year. There will be a free exhibition at Chelsea Library and two special events in the Children's Library with party fun and games.

- No tickets needed, just turn up.
- Friday 30 July 11am to 12pm
- Friday 20 August 11am to 12pm

Space Hop Summer Reading Challenge

- Space Hop is the national summer reading challenge for 2010.
- Sign up for free at your local library.
- Get a membership card and a poster to track your way through the challenge.
- The Space Hoppers' mission is to choose books for the first library on the moon.
- You can help, by reading six books from the library during the summer.
- More fun on www.spacehop.org.uk

Space craft in the library

Come along to your local library and join in a fun story and craft session. Meet an alien, design your own planet and send a message in a rocket. All children are welcome. If you are under eight years old, please bring a grownup with you. They will enjoy it too!

- Central Library
Tuesdays 2pm to 3pm
- Chelsea Library
Tuesdays 2pm to 3pm
- North Kensington Library
Tuesdays 2pm to 3pm
- Brompton Library
Thursdays 2pm to 3pm
- Kensal Library
Saturdays 2pm to 3pm

