

PRINCIPLES

- Lessons integrate curriculum content learning and language
- Language development and academic development are interdependent entities
- Language development is not solely defined by the growth in grammar and vocabulary