

Calling all budding authors!

Would you like to see your work in print and added to library stock?

Kensington and Chelsea Libraries are now giving you this chance.

Between January 2010 and July 2010, one novella or short story a month will be chosen by library staff to be printed and added to library stock, to be read and borrowed by other library users.

If you are interested, please ask at the Enquiry Desk for details and submission criteria.
