Your pocket guide to what's happening in wards in the Earl's Court and Knightsbridge area with City Living, Local Life

Earl's Court and Knightsbridge

Earl's Court, Redcliffe, Courtfield and Brompton

1 Earl's Court Ward Councillors Terence Buxton, Linda Wade and Jonathon Read supported the local community to come together to celebrate the Queen's Diamond Jubilee in style, with a children's party, tea dance and hog roast. Earl's Court joined City Living, Local Life are currently taking forward a number of ideas local people shared in a recent ward survey such as gardening and indoor plant care workshops and a local bridge club to help bring people together.

2 Redcliffe ward has recently joined City Living, Local Life. Councillors Marie-Therese Rossi, Frances Taylor and Charles Williams have identified a number of priorities, including improvements to the environment and local parks. Residents can give their views in a survey across the ward this autumn.

3 The Councillors in Courtfield ward, are Prof Sir Anthony Coates, Tony Holt and Elizabeth Rutherford. They are planning to join City Living, Local Life later in 2012. They are interested in hearing what ward residents and community groups think are the most important issues and opportunities in the local area.

4 In Brompton ward, Councillors Abbas Barkhordar, Quentin Marshall and Louis Mosley have spearheaded the launch of a new 'tables and chairs register' with the support of local residents and Council officers, available at www.rbkc.gov.uk/tablesandchairs. The online register allows residents to check if businesses have permission to place tables and chairs on pavements and feed back issues to the Council.
