Sloane Square Foutain	On the north-west corner of the centre of Sloane Square.	Royal Hospital	n/a	n/a	Inscription - Metropolitan Drinking Fountain & Cattle Trough Association. TO A REVERED HUSBAND & FATHER FROM HIS LOVING WIFE & CHILDREN 1882	February 1883 (originally July 1882)	Good condition	This fountain was originally erected in Elgin Road in July 1882 for a cost of £50.0.0 paid for by a Miss Nightingale. It was removed in December 1882 by order of the Paddington vestry and re-erected at Sloane Square. In August 1889 it was removed at request of the Chelsea vestry because of an alteration of the roadway and re-erected on the opposite side of road. This is one of several Design-124 drinking fountains.	Owned
Westbourne Grove Urn drinking fountain	On 'Turquoise Island' in Westbourne Grove.	Colville	Pembridge	n/a	nscription - Metropolitan Drinking Fountain & Cattle Trough Association. Erected by S.F.K	Sep-00	Some water staining	The original location described as Westbourne Grove/Archer Street. The fountain is described as design-138, red granite which doesn't quite match the current structure. Also, according to the MDFCTA records this fountain was donated by C.F.Kirby so why are the initials in the inscription "S.F.K"? The fountain is close to this faux cattle trough. This is one of several Design-138 drinking fountains.	Unowned

Marloes Road Infirmary Wall	On the east side of Marloes Road on the wall of St. Mary Abbot's hospital (now a private estate) opposite Stratford Road, W8 6LA	Abingdon	None relevant	n/a	Light stone/ concrete. Built into wall with fountain extending outwards. Sun pattern at top in good condition but slightly dirty. Inscription of 1893. Sign: LORD FROM THY BLESSED THRONE THE GRIEFS OF EARTH LOOK UPON GOD BLESS THE POOR! TEACH THEM TRUE LIBERTY MAKE THEM FROM STRONG DRINK FREE LET THEIR HOMES HAPPY BE GOD BLESS THE POOR.	February 1894	Good	Transferred to care of associaion at time of erection. The association not responsible for repairs to stonework. Replaced by a Bubble Fountain May 1935. This almost agrees with a structure in the MDFCTA records but there is no inscription to confirm. The date in the inscription slightly disagrees but it could be the date it was taken over in the case of the association.	Owned
