

Historic Views: Original Gatehouse as viewed from Kensington Square depicting no throughway in South West Corner

The developer has stated to KSRA that they agree with all our points above and presented their plans for the gatehouse, outlined in Appendix III. If we can secure agreement in writing by legal agreement, as opposed to conditions, that we are well aware can be removed easily by future planning applications,