1. The contract must be read and the dimensions and strings taken from this drawing. Where any discrepancies exist, the consultant's drawings, the assembly drawings, and the reference or where discrepancies exist, the resolution must be brought to the architects' attention.

2. The dimensions these must be found between the key plan and the east elevation.

3. The key plan must be taken preference over the detail drawings, the assembly drawings, and the reference plan.