Comment received: As a current member of Third Space who lives in Fulham/Chelsea however works in Canary Wharf, I currently cannot attend Third Space due to the distance for me to travel due to Corona and working from home. As an impact of Corona, when I eventually able to work from the office, the new permanent rule will be to work from home 3 days a week. Therefore if I were to continue to be able to train all week, having a Third Space gym located in Chelsea would be a blessing! I absolutely love Third Space. It's the best gym by far in terms of service, quality and quantity of gym equipment and their classes as in a class of their own. Furthermore, In my opinion, Third Space is exactly the kind of gym which fits the level of type of quality and image Chelsea offers which makes it a perfect fit. I really do hope the gym gets approved to be opened and will be able to continue to be a loyal member.
