

Royal Borough of Kensington and Chelsea Core Strategy – Adoption Statement – Planning policy relating to public houses and other facilities which make life local and planning policy relating to use and its contribution to character within conservation areas

This Adoption Statement gives notice that the Royal Borough of Kensington and Chelsea resolved to adopt a planning policy relating to the protection of public houses in the borough and other facilities which make life local and a planning policy relating to use and its contribution to the character of a conservation area at its full Council meeting on the 16 October 2013. These policies are included in the Core Strategy which is the principal planning policy document and provides the vision, objectives and spatial policies to guide development in the Borough until 2028.

Any person aggrieved by the decision to adopt these policies may make an application to the High Court under Section 113 of the Planning and Compulsory Purchase Act 2004 on the grounds that the policies are not within the appropriate power or that a procedural requirement has not been complied with. The application must be made no later than the end of the period of six weeks starting with the date the policies were adopted i.e. by the 5 December 2013.

The adopted policies and this adoption statement together with the sustainability appraisal report can be viewed on the Council's website at www.rbkc.gov.uk. These documents are also available for inspection during normal office hours at the following locations:
