the Garrick & Mite & self together at home. Bed after being in Drawing Room. (Red ink: M not so well.) (Cutting glued in: Death of Harriet Pearks. Buried on Monday.)

Friday December 21

Stafford Terrace. Up later. Overslept self. Out. M had a better night. Walked to Cromwell Road past Lytham House. No school girls. Back. After made up mind to do Toboggan. Enlarged it in room in afternoon & some more Dutch back prints. Went down & developed them & put them in Drawing Room. After Mite, Roy & self dined at home quietly. In Drawing Room after. Colder. Bed at 12.0am. (Red ink: M a better night.)

Saturday December 22

Stafford Terrace. Up at 8.10 & out with Rags. Dear M not so good a night. Saw Red Hat go into Court. Walked over & down Phillimore Gds. Breakfast, Roy & self. After in morning writing & putting straight. Orton in. Wanted me to go away. Poor man he was taken with influenza himself in the afternoon & seriously ill. Perfectly well when I was talking to him. M cheerful. In afternoon began Toboggan drawing in earnest. Put in Britannia. Roy left for Pyt House at 5.0pm in the carriage. Mite & self dined together & she went back by Upton who had gone twice for turkeys to Victoria. Bed after being in Morning Room. Colder. Curious letter from the Borough Surveyor to say the occupant of the house had erected a scaffold in a Public Way. £4 to pay. (Red ink: M not so good a night. Roy went to Pyt House.)

Sunday December 23

Stafford Terrace. Up 8.30. No hot water. Had semi cold bath. Out & walked up Church St & back by Phillimore Gardens. After all morning writing etc etc. Dear M with a better night. Slept soundly. Sat with her in the morning & Mite in room. Mite & self lunched. Cigar & rest in my room after. Mite came up at 4.30 to say Dr Pollock & Dr Hayward wanted to see me. Went down. Terrible news that dear M must have an operation tomorrow. Young Orton in the room also. The greatest blow I have had during my married life. Miserable & wretched. Went up & sat with M. Tried to work. Broke down. Mite & I dined at 8.0. At 9.0 Upton & Spring put the small bed in front room & took down the large bed & put it in Roy's Room. Mite left at 11.0. Bed in Roy's Room. (Red ink: Dr Pollock & Dr Hayward came & I was told the terrible news dear M must have
