Reading groups

Join a library reading group

If you like reading and sharing your thoughts about books, join one of our library reading groups.

- Choose a book with other group members and discuss it at the next meeting.
- Discover new books and authors or recommend your favourites to the group.
- Enjoy lively discussions in an informal and relaxed atmosphere.
- Open to all adult library members.

What to read

We offer duplicate copies of prize winning, popular fiction and non-fiction books that you can borrow.

Read more about book choices [1].

Locations

- Kensington Central Library reading group [2]
- Notting Hill Gate Library reading group [3]
- Chelsea Library reading group [4]
- Brompton Library reading group [5]
- North Kensington Library reading group [6]
- Graphic Novel reading group (based at Brompton Library) [7]

Find out what each reading group is reading next [1].

Reading group for children

Chatterbooks is our reading group for children. We want to encourage children to:

- read more
- talk about books
- develop confidence in expressing their opinions

Find out more about Chatterbooks [8].

Book Break

Book Break reading groups are led by a facilitator who reads stories and poems aloud.

- Listen and relax while we read.
- Meet others over a cup of tea and biscuits.
- Chat about what we read together
- Everyone is welcome.

Read more about Book Break. [9]
Contact us

If you need any more information or want to share your ideas about how we can encourage reading in the borough, get in touch enjoyreading@rbkc.gov.uk [10].

Print page: /

Source URL: https://www.rbkc.gov.uk/libraries/news-and-events/reading-groups

Links
[1] https://trib.ent.sirsiynix.net.uk/client/en_GB/rbkc/?rm=READING+GROUPS0|||1||3|||true&amp;dt=list
[10] mailto:enjoyreading@rbkc.gov.uk