Is the vehicle registered with the DVLA? Yes No

Under current legislation all UK residents must register and tax their foreign registered vehicles with the Driver and Vehicle Licensing Agency (DVLA) before they are used or parked on the public highway. This does not apply to vehicles belonging to foreign students studying in the UK. Therefore, we will not issue a permit for a foreign registered vehicle unless you are a foreign student.

- I am a foreign student and I enclose a document from my college confirming my registration and my course start and end dates

Proof that you are the main user and keeper of the vehicle

Please tick boxes to show which documents you are providing

Proof that you can drive

You must produce a current driving licence, which is valid in the UK. Please note that most driving licences issued outside the EU are not valid after one year of residency in the UK.

I enclose my current full driving licence My licence was issued in the UK in the EU outside the EU

I enclose my current provisional driving licence, my insurance policy and proof that I am learning to drive, such as, proof of driving lessons, valid theory test certificate or practical test within the past 12 months. I understand that I cannot apply for a permit for a vehicle owned by my company or employer with a provisional licence. After three years, you must produce a valid theory test certificate to be eligible for a permit.

Car permits

Car (and van) permits are priced according to CO₂ emissions (for vehicles registered after 1 March 2001) or engine size (for vehicles registered before March 2001) and length of permit duration. Supplementary charges

We charge a supplementary fee if your vehicle is diesel fuelled and does not meet Euro 6 standards. All cars registered on, or after, 1 September 2015 meet the Euro 6 standard. If your car was registered before that date you will need to provide proof that it is Euro 6 compliant. If you are unable to do this, you will need to pay the diesel surcharge. All van owners will need to prove their vehicles are Euro 6 compliant to avoid paying the diesel surcharge.

We also charge a supplementary fee if there is more than one car permit in your household.

Please tick all applicable supplementary charges.

Declaration

I have read and understood the terms and conditions of the residents' parking permit scheme as detailed in Section Two of the current Residents' Parking Guide) and I understand that by signing this I accept all the terms and conditions under which the permit is issued. I understand that the Council, if it wishes, may issue a permit that is valid for a period shorter than the one for which I have applied, while it checks the veracity of my application, rather than refuse my application outright. I confirm that the information I have supplied is accurate and true. I understand that it is a criminal offence to give untrue or misleading information or to withhold information and if I do so I may be prosecuted and face an unlimited fine or a term of up to 10 years' imprisonment or both and I may be refused another permit regardless of whether I meet the eligibility criteria.
