

Your name:

Who pollinates plants? spotter sheet

Pollinators help plants to create seeds by taking pollen from one flower to another.

On a sunny day, find a place with lots of flowers and see which ones you can spot.

			Spotted
Bees	 1	 2	<input type="checkbox"/>
Bumblebees	 3	 4	<input type="checkbox"/>
Butterflies and moths	 5	 6	 7	<input type="checkbox"/>
Hoverflies and other flies	 8	 9	 10	<input type="checkbox"/>
Ladybirds and other beetles	 11	 12	 13	<input type="checkbox"/>

- 1. Honeybee 2. Solitary Bee (e.g. Red Mason Bee) 3. Buff-tailed Bumblebee
4. Red-tailed Bumblebee 5. Red Admiral Butterfly 6. Peacock Butterfly
7. Cinnabar Moth 8./9. Hoverflies 10. Bluebottle Fly 11. Seven-spot Ladybird 12. 14-spot Ladybird 13. Thick-legged Flower Beetle

THE ROYAL BOROUGH OF KENSINGTON
AND CHELSEA