

Head of Children's Joint Commissioning

Job Outline

Responsible for leading, managing and co-ordinating children and young people's joint commissioning activity between the three inner London Clinical Commissioning Groups (CCGs) and Hammersmith & Fulham, Kensington and Chelsea and Westminster local authorities. Particular responsibilities include commissioning work on young people mental health, community health services supported children with disabilities and specialist health provision for looked after children and youth offenders.

Staff Directly Managed:

Team of 4 commissioners and support for the Children & Family Act Designated Clinical Officer (DCO).

Budgetary Responsibility: approximately £4m